A profound template to follow.

SCENE 1: The officeCharacters: BRYCE, FX, MUSIC, LARRY

1 BRYCE This is just an example script. Don't expect to see anything profound here.

2 FX Knock on door.

3 MUSIC A rousing theme picks up

4 BRYCE As you can see, there is not much to this script format.

5 LARRY (BREATHING HARD) Is this the right script?

6 BRYCE It sure is, I just needed a second character to talk to. (THINKS)
I might have more to say.

7 LARRY That's okay. I'll wait around.

SCENE 2:Characters: BRYCE, LARRY, MUSIC

- 1 BRYCE Now we are in a new scene.
- 2 LARRY But, you didn't put any scene description on this one!
- 3 BRYCE That's because I don't need it. I only put it in when I want to. All I really have to do is add the word "scene", all in caps, with a colon after.
- 4 MUSIC Dramatic music up.
